France Increasing her Army Reserves.

Paris, April 29.

The Chamber has adopted by 445 votes to 73 a Bill providing for the temporary retention of soldiers and sailors who have concluded three years' service, the calling up of soldiers individually, and the re-enlistment of reservists voluntarily for six months, a year, or eighteen months. This will ensure that the 1920 class, at least a part of the 1919 class, and probably many volunteers from the unemployed will be available to occupy the Ruhr region.

Washington, April 30.

Italy has notified complete agreement with the United States on the Yap question, and is convinced that the United States are not seeking privileges in Yap which have not been granted to other nations. Italy offers her co-operation in the efforts to restore the equanimity of the world.

Later.

The Italian Government Note to America expresses the opinion that the United States intends to protect its interests in Yap with full consideration for the interests of other nations, and says that Italy seconded the proposal of the British and French Governments to refer the Yap controversy to a judicial committee and the conference of Ambassadors in Paris, and expect such a settlement as will eliminate every possibility of disagreement.

HOLLAND PASSES OILFIELDS DEVELOPMENT BILL.

The Hague, April 29.

The Second Chamber, by 49 votes to 30, has passed the Djambi Oilfields Development Bill after the rejection of a number of amendments.

THE STAMP BILL.

To-day's Discussion in Council.

The Legislative Council met to-day at noon, when the Hon. Attorney General moved the third reading of the Stamp Bill. The Hon. Colonial Secretary seconded.

Hon. Mr. H. E. Pollock suggested that a ledger be kept in the Stamp Office containing the various headings of the schedule of the Bill. He pointed out that when the Government wanted particulars of the Stamp Revenue under the different headings of the old Ordinance it had to adopt a very cumbersome procedure. If a ledger were kept with a record from day to day the Government would have the information without the labour of past.

Hon. Mr. Lau Chu Pak supported Mr. Pollock and went on to voice a complaint laid by Chinese merchants that the Government had overlooked the interests of the Chinese merchants in not having appointed a single Chinese to the Committee which considered the Bill before its introduction in the Council. Seeing that the Chinese were the largest taxpayers in the Colony and that the Bill would affect them more than any other section of the community they submitted that they had definite ground for complaint. He trusted that in the future the Chinese would be given an opportunity to express their views on such occasions. They also urged that the Bill be translated into Chinese without which the great bulk of Chinese would not be able to understand it thoroughly.

Replying to the Hon. Mr. Pollock, the Hon. Colonial Treasurer said such records could be kept with some increase of staff, but with regard to the sale of duty stamps they really had no means of knowing what the stamps were to be used for, and under each heading they would not be able to get a proper return. They would, of course, know the total amount of stamps sold each day.

His Excellency approved Mr. Pollock's suggestion and thought perhaps that a record of the super imposed stamps might be kept.

The Hon. Colonial Secretary said not in every case. Sometimes blank pieces of paper were sent to be stamped.

Hon. Mr. Pollock thought that to a considerable extent a record should be kept sufficient to put them further on than they had been in the past.

His Excellency agreed that it would be more business like but said that in addition to extra staff might mean more accommodation in the stamp office.

Hon. Mr. Pollock said it should need only one clerk and he did not think a ledger in a corner would require much room.

The Hon. Secretary for Chinese Affairs assured the Hon. Mr. Lau Chu Pak that all bills were translated into Chinese, the translation of this one would be submitted to the Chinese members for scrutiny.

The Hon. Attorney General especially regretted that no Chinese was appointed to the Committee, but he said that the Committee could not be made fully representative without making it unduly large. The end had been to secure the representation of the different sections of business rather of races.

His Excellency echoed the Attorney General's regret, but pointed out that since the Bill was introduced the Chinese had had some opportunity for making representations and many of the representations had been adopted.

The Bill was then passed, and His Excellency thanked hon. members and those who had made representations for their assistance with a difficult measure.

In Finance Committee the following vote was recommended by His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government:

BATHING BEACHES.

A Fee of 10 Cents at North Point.

In spite of all the protests made regarding the Colony's bathing beaches—or perhaps because of those protests—we are not going to be without the usual facilities at Kennedy Town and North Point.

It is announced in the latest Government Gazette that the public bathing beaches at Kennedy Town and North Point will be opened to the public on the 1st and 15th of May, respectively.

A fee of 10 cents will be charged for each person bathing from the North Point Beach.

DAY BY DAY.

There were three further fatal cases of small-pox reported yesterday, and also one non-fatal case of enteric fever.

We are asked to announce that the Musical arranged for the afternoon of Monday, May 2nd at the Helena May Institute has been cancelled.

Another man has been arrested in connection with the murder of a little girl at Au-tau. He is alleged to have engaged a man to dump the girl's body in a swamp.

His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government has appointed Dr. Gladys Maude Turner to be a Member of the Midwives Board, vice Dr. Alice Deborah Hickling, M.D.C.

Efforts are being made by the Police to locate a shroff employed by the Chinese Merchants' Bank, who absconded at noon yesterday with $11,000, which he had collected from the Bank of Canton.

His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government in Council has given directions for the rescission of the Order of the 20th May, 1920, proclaiming Formosa to be a place at which an infectious or contagious disease prevailed.

Labour Day, which falls to-morrow, will pass quietly in the Colony, the workmen here being not interested, for the reason that the eight-hour day (which constitutes the cause de joie of allied bodies at Canton and other cities) has not been sought in their own case.

The quietness of Hongkong on the occasion of the inauguration of Sun Yat-sen to the Presidential office will present a sharp contrast to the effervescence of the celebrations in Canton. A notice issued by the Secretary for Chinese Affairs forbids the holding of a lantern procession by the different labour guilds as had been proposed, and also the firing of crackers. With the deprivation of these two means of raising a lot of noise, and smoke, the workmen have been left to their own personal devices.

A successful whist drive was held last evening in the R. A. Sergeants' Mess, Victoria Barracks. This function was exceptionally well attended; 126 players taking part. The following were the prize-winners: Ladies:—1st, Mrs. Booth, (176); 2nd, Mrs. Capewell (174); 3rd, Mrs. White (173); 4th, Miss Moody (171); 5th, Mrs. Holloway (127). Gents:—1st, Mr. Henderson (181); 2nd, Mr. Gill (174); 3rd, Mr. Sutherland (174); 4th, Mr. Elliott (174); 5th, Mr. Sowerby (131); Master Gunner May, ably carried out the duties of M.C.

$1,600 in aid of the vote: Judicial and Legal Departments, Supreme Court, Other Charges, Library.

The Hon. Colonial Secretary explained that this was to purchase from a bookseller leaving the Colony a valuable library which the Attorney General thought should be acquired.

The motion was approved and the Council adjourned sine die.

ENGINEERS AND SHIP-BUILDERS.

Annual Meeting of Institution.

The thirtieth annual general meeting of the Institution of Engineers and Shipbuilders of Hongkong was held in King's Buildings on Friday evening. Mr. W. Budge, Chairman of the Committee, conducted the proceedings.

The Chairman said the annual report had been in members hands for sometime and on the whole, he thought, could be regarded as very satisfactory. The membership had increased considerably, 116 new members having been elected during the year. Financially, they were also in a very good position. He regretted they had lost, through death, since their last meeting several old friends, including Mr. A. G. Gordon, of Gordon and Co., Mr. James Macdonald, Government Marine Surveyor, Mr. R. Henderson, Shewan, Tomes and Co., Mr. J. A. Hunter, L. Ogilvie and Co., Saigon, Mr. F. Herbert, Chief Officer, S.S. "Foo Shing," Mr. W. C. Collins, China Light and Power Co., Mr. John Matthews, S.S. "Yunnan," and Mr. W. R. Noble, China and Japan Telephone Co. The Chairman concluded by moving the adoption of the report, which was seconded by Mr. J. McCubbin and unanimously carried.

Proposing the election of Mr. James Reid, manager of Taikoo Dock, as the President for the ensuing year, the Chairman said Mr. Reid occupied that position some four or five years ago and proved himself a very hardworking and capable President. The Chairman regretted that Mr. T. Neave, last year's President, was unable to attend their annual meeting.

Mr. J. Ormiston seconded and the motion was carried with applause. Mr. Reid, returning thanks, promised to do all in his power to further the interests of the Institution.

Mr. McCubbin submitted the names of Mr. W. Budge and Mr. J. Ormiston as Vice-Presidents, remarking that they were both well known and could be relied upon to assist the President whenever called upon.

Mr. W. J. Stokes seconded and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

For the position of Hon. Secretary, Mr. B. L. Frost put forward the name of Mr. S. Baker, who, he said, had filled the position with credit for four or five years.

Mr. P. T. Farrell seconded and the Chairman, in supporting, paid a tribute to the excellent work of Mr. Farrell in that connection during the period Mr. Baker had been on leave.

The motion was unanimously approved.

Mr. A. J. Pilgrim was elected Hon. Treasurer on the motion of Mr. W. Russell seconded by Mr. T. G. Paterson.

Mr. R. Hunter proposed the election of Mr. W. J. Stokes, as Hon. Librarian. The Chairman seconded and the resolution was carried with unanimity.

Messrs. Lowe, Bingham and Matthews were appointed auditors on the proposition of the Chairman seconded by Mr. Farrell.

Mr. A. E. Benson enquired how much money had been allocated for the purpose of providing fiction and technical works for the Library. He mentioned that members on ships which were periodically coming to the port often went to the library for books and could not get what they required.

Mr. Ormiston supported Mr. Benson's remarks. The library was not a credit to the Institution, in fact he considered that it ought to be "scrapped." He proposed that $30 a month be allocated for providing new fiction books.

Mr. Baker did not think the complaint could be justified. In one year, whilst he was Secretary, 23 books were added to the fiction library.

Mr. B. M. Dyer seconded Mr. Ormiston's resolution, which was carried by a large majority.

Mr. Frost said that as the outgoing Librarian he wished to mention it had been very difficult to secure books. He had been round to the bookshops, but experienced a great deal of difficulty in getting what they required. Previous to his being on the sick list, he was adding four or five new books to the library every month. He had had a talk with Mr. Stokes, who was now taking on the position of Librarian, and he thought that, in course of time, there would be a big improvement in the fiction part of the library. Most of the members had their own technical books, and as few were read in the library it did not pay to keep an extensive collection. There were few members who came to the Institution for the purpose of sitting down and reading technical books. That was one of the reasons why more money had not been spent on technical works. He quite agreed to the proposal that more money should be spent on the fiction library.

Mr. Stokes regarded the purchase of novels locally as a bad speculation and said efforts would be made to obtain a supply from home.

Mr. Ormiston's resolution to devote $35 monthly to the fiction library was unanimously agreed to.

The Chairman proposed a hearty vote of thanks to last year's President, Mr. Thomas Neave. Mr. Neave had not missed a single Committee meeting and did a great deal of useful work in connection with their annual ball which proved such a great success.

Mr. McCubbin seconded and the resolution was unanimously adopted.

On the proposition of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. Dyer, it was unanimously decided to contribute $100 to St. Dunstan's Hostel for blinded soldiers and sailors and $100 to the Earl Haig's Ex-Servicemen's Fund, the Chairman remarking that that was the least they could do to show their appreciation of the men who bore their troubles during the last few years.

The prizes won in the various billiards competitions were then presented by the Chairman. The winners were:—

President's Cup for 1920: 1, presented by Mr. T. Neave, Mr. J. Parkes; 2, (presented by Messrs. E. L. Frost and H. Hunter), Mr. G. Grot; break prizes, (presented by Mr. A. K. Henderson), Mr. W. Brown (53).

Thornycroft Challenge Cup: 1, presented by Messrs. J. I. Thornycroft and Co., Mr. J. C. Saunders; 2, (presented by the Institute), Mr. J. Ormiston; break prize (presented by Mr. H. Smythe), Mr. J. Parkes (31).

Far East Oxygen and acetylene Coy. Cups: 1, Mr. R. Hunter; 2, Mr. B. L. Frost; break prize (presented by the Institute), Mr. T. B. Gidding (57).

Handicap Competition: 1, (presented by Mr. J. M. Ramsey), Mr. W. Brown; 2, (presented by Mr. T. W. Robertson), Mr. J. B. Hamilton; break prize (presented by the Institute), Mr. A. Silkstone (36).

The result of the ballot for the election of Committeemen was as follows:—Messrs. P. T. Farrell, R. Hunter, J. McCubbin, B. L. Frost, S. Baker, W. Budge, J. Ormiston, T. G. Paterson, W. Russell, G. J. Harman, J. Tully and W. J. Stokes.

As Mr. Davis and Mr. Stokes, the Hon. Secretary and Hon. Librarian respectively, are ex-officio members, the two names receiving the next highest number of votes were taken:—Mr. A. Davidson and Mr. R. Hall.

The Chairman mentioned that at an extraordinary general meeting it was found expedient to alter rules 10 and 43. It was necessary that the resolution should be confirmed. The rules now said:—

"10. Honorary officers of the Institution shall consist of an Hon. Secretary, Hon. Treasurer and Hon. Librarian. The Hon. Secretary and Hon. Librarian must be ordinary members, but the post of Treasurer may be held by an associate member who shall, during his term of office, sit in the Committee and vote as an ordinary member."

Mr. B. M. Dyer seconded Mr. Ormiston's resolution, which was carried by a large majority.

IMPORTING OPIUM.

Steamship Company Fined $3,000.

The Sai Hing S.S. Company, owners of the s.s. Chung Hing, were this morning fined $3,000 by Magistrate Orme for using the vessel to import opium into the Colony.

Big quantities of prepared and raw opium were seized in the engine room of the ship by Chief Revenue Officer Watt on the 9th and 10th.

A fireman and a greaser had deserted the ship in consequence of the seizures.

THE LEVY ON DEBTS TO GERMANS.

Difficulty in Carrying It Out.

The few days which have elapsed since the break-up of the Reparations Conference have certainly not served to imbue the City with much confidence that the particular sanction to which Mr. Lloyd George attached the greatest importance—namely, the interception of 50 per cent. of the debts due in Allied countries to German nationals—is likely to turn out a workable proposition, writes the financial editor of a home journal. At first sight it seems very simple for a man who buys £1,000 worth of German goods, to use Mr. Lloyd George's illustration, to pay £500 into the British Exchequer and to remit an Exchequer receipt for this £500 and the other £500 in cash to the German exporter. But, as a matter of practice, neither the carrying out of this procedure nor its enforcement is likely to be at all easy.

In the first place goods imported are largely paid for by bills of exchange, drawn by the exporter or his bank on the importer or a bank or accepting house acting on his behalf, and it is an essential part of the mechanism of foreign trade finance that such bills should be capable of being negotiated from hand to hand. It is evident, therefore, that this particular sanction is not merely a question between the British purchaser of German goods and the Exchequer; it also concerns bankers, accepting houses, discounting houses, and all who have to do with the financing of imports. Any legislation which is to be effective in enforcing the "sanction" will have to lay upon all these institutions the duty of satisfying themselves that the deduction provision is being duly carried out in respect of any transactions with which they are in any way concerned. The treatment of such items as freight and insurance where a debt is payable in marks is likely to prove a fruitful source of difficulties, and can clearly only be provided for by an elaborate system of regulations. And where goods have passed through neutral hands it seems almost hopeless to expect that any procedure can be devised which will not be by the friction and difficulties it creates render business almost impossible in practice.

With the consent and the co-operation of the German Government the difficulties could, no doubt, be surmounted, but as a "sanction" the measure is not attractive, and unless and until the German Government consents to compensate its nationals for the deduction it is simply ridiculous. It may be added that the contemplated step of making its provisions retrospective will entail even greater difficulties, if possible, apart from the question of breach of faith, as the original creditors will in many cases have transferred their interest in the debts by negotiation of bills of exchange to parties who have no knowledge of or interest in the transactions to which they refer.

ROW OF WAR PYRAMIDS
IN FRANCE

A scheme for marking the line at which the German advance in the spring of 1918 was stopped, which at one time seemed to have been abandoned, has now been taken up again. It is proposed to erect pyramids along the entire front, bearing the inscription, "Here was arrested the onrush of the Barbarians." The number of pyramids and the places where they are to be erected will shortly be determined by Marshal Petain.

NAVAL RIVALRY.

Lord Lee's Offer to America.

At the annual dinner of the Institution of Naval Architects in London Lord Lee (First Lord of the Admiralty) said we had been confronted recently with the problem of the capital ship.

In regard to this and in all other matters we had critics and critics. There were critics such as that distinguished company, and there were the other critics—those who fight and run away in order to write another day. (Laughter and cheers.) There were those who told us that the capital ship was obsolete.

He did not find that that was the balance of opinion held in any naval country, and so far as the Admiralty inquiries had gone here they were convinced that the capital ship was not obsolete—that it still remained the basis of sea power, and that it would still continue to play in the future the same vital part in naval warfare as it had done in the past. (Cheers.)

OUR NAVAL POLICY.

The Admiralty were not sitting on a fence, and the statement made only two days ago showed that they proposed a modest replacing of our older and obsolete capital ships.

They were doing it largely upon the principle that if, as assumed necessary in the financial circumstances of the time, we must rest content with a smaller navy than that it was more and more imperative that the navy should be of the very highest quality with regard to its material, and that we should maintain it unimpaired in what it had been always in the past, and that was the highest possible efficiency in its personnel. (Cheers.)

If they were to proceed on any other assumption that would be imperilling that most precious possession of British sea power the moral and spirit of the British Navy.

The First Lord went on to say:—We see the United States of America Senate is laying down the principle that America is to maintain a Navy at least equal to that of any other Power. That is a claim to equality which this country has never accepted in the past—(hear, hear)—and never would accept save in connection with a great English-speaking nation that sprang from its loins, and must ever hold a great place in our regard and confidence. (Cheers.)

The difference between our formula and that of America is too slight to be made a subject of controversy, still less of friction or hostility. I join issue with those who say we should not discuss this question because war with any of our late Allies and with America is unthinkable.

Wars do not become impossible because people never think about them, and this is a subject about which we ought to be thinking—thinking day and night with the fixed intention of making it impossible. (Cheers.)

WE HAVE TAKEN RISKS.

Because if ever a war is going to take place between us and any of our late Allies it will be the fault of blind or criminal leading, for which our statesmen, whether in London, Washington, Tokio, or the capital of any other naval Power, would be condemned and execrated in history, if they fail to avert such a tragedy. Mr. Denby had said that the greatest calamity that could overtake humanity would be war between this country and America, and that between us we could control the sea.

I have no doubt, Lord Lee proceeded, that between us we could, but the question before us to-day is whether we are heading in the right direction with regard to our navies without consulting with each other.

In that respect, I think, the Government of this country have a clean record. We have admittedly taken risks as regards the relative position of our navies and of others, and we are prepared to go as far as possible in that direction by mutual agreement.

But merely to talk of hands across the sea is not sufficient—we must have our heads across the sea as well. It is not enough to talk about blood being thicker than water.

What we want is that plain horse sense which is characteristic of both our countries, and personally, from a long knowledge of America, I have a profound belief in business talking leading up to a square deal.

"LAY OUR CARDS ON THE TABLE."

I hold that in this matter we are not engaged in a game of poker or of bluff, but in a sort of game where we ought to lay our cards on the table and discuss frankly with our friends what the future should be. (Cheers.)

The only point that remains to be settled is who is to make the first move to initiate the discussion.

Still, we are not disposed to stand upon ceremony in this or any other matter. We welcome the hint which has been thrown out by President Harding, and it will continue to be met with the most cordial and helpful response here. (Cheers.)

I can say this, that if the invitation comes from Washington personally I am prepared to put aside all other business, pressing though it may be, in order to take part in business than which there can be nothing more pressing in the affairs of this world. (Cheers.)

BAVARIAN PRINCE TO DON THE COWL.

Prince George of Bavarian, the eldest son of Prince Leopold, and nephew of the late Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, will shortly enter the Monastery of Saint Benedict of Ettal, in Bavaria. The Prince, who took part in the war, is 31 years old. He was married to the Arch-Duchess Isabella of Austria in 1912, but was divorced the following year.

CHUCKLES.

"What do people mean, father," inquired the precocious boy, "when they speak of love at first sight?" Father looked up from his newspaper for no longer than it took to say "Astigmatism."

A man came along a road in Ireland. By the side of the road crouched an old beggar-woman waiting for alms. As the man drew near she began to crouch. His hand went to his pocket. She crouched louder. "May the blessing of the Lord follow yez," she said. "May the blessing of the Lord follow yez all the days of your life." At this moment the man produced his tobacco-pipe, and pipe from his pocket, and passed by without taking any notice. "But may it never overtake yez!" shouted the old woman.

After giving the prospective housemaid full details as to her duties the mistress of the house was on the point of turning away when suddenly a thought struck her. "Oh, by the way," she asked, "do you know your way to announce?" "Well, mum," replied Mary, "I'm not sure about that, but I think I know my weight to a pound or so."

An Irishman with a young pig in his arms was going through a dark wood when he came across a girl crying bitterly. "What's the matter?" he asked. "I'm frightened to go through the wood, it's so dark." "Come along with me and I'll see you safely through." A bit further on she began crying again. "What's the matter now?" asked Paddy. "I'm frightened you kiss me." "How can I kiss you with a pig in my arms?" "I'll hold the pig."

She was a portly, talkative specimen of the female variety, whose husband, in a moment of weakness, had taken her to see a Cup match. It was the first match she had ever seen, and her nose kept going up higher and higher as the game proceeded. Presently she said, "What are those eleven fools trying to do?" "They're trying to get that ball through those posts into that net," said her husband. Silence for a few minutes. Then, "And what are the eleven other fools trying to do?" "They're trying to prevent them," answered her long-suffering husband. "And what are all the forty thousand other fools doing?" she said, with a bite in her voice. "They're all enjoying themselves but one," came the retort.—The London Morning Post.

PACIFIC NEWS.

Of Interest To Shippers.

The new steamship Keystone State, second of the transpacific liners allocated to the Pacific Steamship Company for operation from Seattle to the Orient, is due to sail from New York to Seattle via the Canal and Pacific Coast ports on April 30, under the command of Capt. Girard T. January, who will turn her over to Capt. E. P. Bartlett on her arrival. The Keystone State will arrive in Seattle about May 23. She will be followed about a month later by the third 535-foot steamship, the Bay State.

An increase of 50 per cent in lumber freights between Pacific Coast ports and the Far East has been agreed to by the operators of American and foreign lines raising the rate from $10 to $15 per thousand feet.

Port officials at Seattle point with pride to the record made in handling $5,000,000 worth of raw silk which arrived aboard the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Suwa Maru. The liner pulled up at one of the big Smith Cove piers at 6.30 o'clock in the evening and five and one-half hours later, at midnight, the silk had been taken from the hold of the ship, placed in express cars alongside and the engineer was heading his train out of the terminals towards Paterson, New Jersey. Incoming silk shipments seem to be on the increase, indicating a more satisfactory condition in the Oriental market than has prevailed for some months.

Trade revival between Puget Sound and the Far East is being evidenced by the cargoes moving out of Seattle in both American and foreign bottoms. This month the Pacific Steamship Company will dispatch two large freight carriers from Seattle for the Orient with capacity cargoes. These vessels are the City of Spokane and the Edmore. Osaka Shosen Kaisha, Nippon Yusen Kaisha, Blue Funnel Line, and Struthers & Dixon carriers are also taking full loads from the Sound to the Far East. The City of Spokane of the Admiral Line fleet will complete her cargo and sail for Japan and China. She has a full cargo of lumber steel and general merchandise.

TELEPHONE EXPERIMENTS.
According to Mr. Hingworth, although the Post Office is continually experimenting, no satisfactory instrument for use by a subscriber in checking calls has yet been designed.

INDUSTRY WITHOUT A HEART.

How Labour is Embittered.

When I look back upon the fifteen years I spent as a glass-worker, it appeals me to think of the waste we saw, I and my fellow-workmen, and could not stop—waste of human effort, of tools, of commodities, and of pride in labour which shouldicken any man who has the welfare of his fellowmen at heart, writes Mr. T. Myers, a Labour legislator. Suppose, we had taken our courage in our hands. Suppose we had gone in a deputation to our employers and told them—"You want better machinery. None of us can do justice to our skill and our industry with the means we have at present. You want a better system of work. You are not getting value out of your labour by treating it as so much soulless mechanism. You want better organisation. No one can tell you where your organisation fails so well as the men whose industrial lives it pretends to order."

"MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS."
If we had done that we should have been told to mind our own business—the very thing we were doing! And as to the suggestion that we had the employers' interest at heart in setting up to mind their business for them they would not have listened for a moment.

Yet we were out for the benefit of our employers just as much as for our own benefit.
To-day people are beginning to see that it frequently happens that the working man is not a strife-bearing and interfering handicap upon industry when he claims to make himself heard in the councils of management, but a man who hates to see the work of his hands marred by those who think the world can carry out its daily tasks without a soul to guide it.

In those days we were expected to do the impossible, and blamed for its impossibility. To-day we are told that we assume too much when we claim to share in the task of removing the old abuses and helping to re-establish industry on more unselfish and more productive foundations.

WHO IS THE EXPERT?
But no group of genuine working men desires anything but the entire prosperity of the community at large, for they know that efficiency alone can keep prices low while maintaining wages at a fair and equitable level, and doing justice to the consumer meanwhile.

No thoughtful working man—and a day's hard work is a pretty good incentive to hard thinking—desires to interfere in the proper sphere of another technical expert doing another job. What he does say is that in those spheres where he himself has the expert knowledge, he shall be called in for consultation.

And it is the working man who is the best judge of the best machinery, of the best basis of organisation, of the most equitable labour conditions—for he is on the spot, in direct touch with all the root problems and difficulties. It is in this insensibility to what is equitable in the world of industry that the misguided prophets of unchecked capitalism make their mistake. How can they expect to gain the confidence of the working man when they make it clear that they do not care a brass farthing what his life is like so long as dividends are high and profits easy?

WHEN THE WORKER WILL RESPOND.

And how do they expect to enjoy industrial peace when they make enemies of their own army of industry?
Exceptional conditions, such as the war created, may give room and occasion for profit to the exploiter. But in the end exploitation must bring about its own ruin and compel the State to enlarge its functions and extend the range of its productive operations.

Nothing is more sure than that the working man will respond to the slightest indication of goodwill and kindly interest from his employer. That goodwill is the investment which gives the best dividends in the long run.

When employers generally are prepared to recognise the fact they can look once more for times of settled prosperity, when trade and commerce may be something more than mere individual gain and sectional advantage, but when employers and workmen alike will recognise that they are the servants of the people and custodians of the well being of the State.

GENERAL NEWS.

NEW PUCCINI OPERA.

A Rome report states that Signor Giacomo Puccini, the well-known composer who produced "Madam Butterfly" amongst his many successful operas, is fulfilling the promise he made to Madame Murai Tamaki of writing a new opera having China as the scene. The libretto is taken from the play "Re Turandote" written by Count Carlo Gozzi in the 18th century, which was translated into German by Schiller. Gozzi was descended from an old Venetian family, and was born at Venice in March, 1712. He was a most precocious youth, and wrote four poems before the age of sixteen. He was a rival of the great Italian dramatist Carlo Goldoni, against whom he wrote satirical verses. The scene of the opera will be laid in an imaginary ancient China, with plenty of fanciful poetry. Puccini studied Chinese music, and was sent purposely to China to hear some of the Chinese songs, which seemed to him very simple and primitive. He also obtained from an American some of these on phonograph records. It is not certain when the opera will be ready, as the poets Simrani and Abami, who are providing the libretto, have only written two acts so far.

BOY WHO RACED WELLINGTON.

Sir Algernon West Dies at the Age of 88.

By the death of Sir Algernon West which took place last month in his 89th year, has broken one of our last links, among public men, with pre-Victorian times.

Born within hail of Whitehall on April 4, 1832, the year of the great Reform Bill, Sir Algernon was proud of his ancestry. On his father's side he was linked with William Pitt, and of the other side of his family he wrote in his "Recollections."

My mother was a daughter of Lord Orford, through whom we trace our descent from the great Sir Robert Walpole, my great grandfather. His daughter married Colonel Churchill, a son of General Churchill and the fascinating actress Anne Oldfield. Their daughter became the wife of Lord Orford, my grandfather.

THE DUKE'S TIP.

One of Sir Algernon's earliest recollections was a visit to the Duke of Wellington, who had just received some of the first new shillings coined in Queen Victoria's reign. He asked young West if he would like to have a portrait of the Queen, and gave him one of these new shillings. This was at Walmer Castle, and Sir Algernon used to tell how, as a boy, he and the great Duke ran a race down the grass hill leading to the main gate.

As showing the barbarous state of our laws at this period, West says that just before the Queen ascended the throne a little boy was sentenced to death for breaking a confectioner's window and stealing some sweetmeats. Lunatics were chained together on beds of straw, naked, handcuffed, and shown at 21. a head for each visitor.

Educated at Eton, West was the last clerk to enter the public service without examination.

Those were the days (he wrote) in which the dandies reigned, with their triple waistcoats, their many folded neckcloths, their wristbands turned back over their tight coat sleeves, their brocaded evening waistcoats and embroidered shirt fronts.

MEMORIES OF G.O.M.

In 1861 he was appointed private secretary to Sir Charles Wood, then Secretary for India, and this led to his being chosen as private secretary to Gladstone in 1868, when the great statesman became Prime Minister for the first time. Two years later, Gladstone was looking forward to retirement.

"One morning, at the close of a peculiarly harassing debate, we walked home in the dawning day, and on parting at the foot of the Duke of York's steps, weary as he was, he said: 'Well, my work is now nearly over. If I can pass Irish Education, and find a fitting place for you in the Civil Service, I shall have done all I wish to do, and be able to retire.'

Yet the statesman who in 1870 was thinking of retiring began his fourth administration in 1892, when he was over 80 years of age. Sir Algernon had many stories of the chief he served so long.

One day in 1872 I was summoned to Downing-street, and on my arrival I was surprised to find Mr. Gladstone in the garden with Sir Henry Storks and Sir Frederick Abel, who had promised to demonstrate the art of felling trees noiselessly by gun-cotton. A mast had been planted in the ground with a necklace of gun-cotton around it, which at the proper time was to be exploded.

Mr. Ayrton, then First Commissioner of Works, who was not a scientific believer, was protesting against the experiment, but on Sir Frederick's assurance that nobody would be "one penny the worse," the gun-cotton was exploded, with a terrific report, which was heard in Hyde Park. I found myself under a shower of glass, which had fallen from the skylight of the First Lord's house, and all the adjoining windows were smashed.

There was one person who rejoiced—that was the triumphant Ayrton. Theories were exploded as well as gun-cotton.

Sir Algernon West was appointed Deputy-Chairman of the Board of Inland Revenue in 1877, and Chairman of the Board in 1881. From this last post he retired in 1892.

NEW IDEA IN FLATS.

Co-operative Kitchen and Public Nursery.

The latest development in service flats promises to remove all domestic worries from the harassed housewife (says the Daily News.)

A block of flats now being built in St. John's Wood, London is to be equipped with a domestic service bureau, where tenants will be supplied with maids to clean their rooms.

There will also be a crèche in charge of a matron where mothers will be able to leave their child ren while on shopping or theatre expeditions.

In addition the company, recognising the fact that high restaurant charges have operated against the popularity of the service flat, have decided that the public restaurant shall not be run for profit. Instead, it will be managed by a committee of tenants, and each tenant will be required to spend only £1 a week in the restaurant.

INEFFECTUAL UNOFFICIALS.

The Stamp Bill is passed. The duties payable on our tobacco and spirits have been increased. The tax on our houses is greater. All these things have happened during the past month, and we are going to ask our readers to do the same as we have done—cast their minds back over the period and note with what ineffectual lipings our Unofficial Members have attempted to interpret the public opinion of this Colony. What have they done? What constructive assistance have they rendered to the Government of which they are members and in what degree have they voiced the opinion of the public they are supposedly given a chance to represent? We ask that question in all seriousness and without the slightest personal consideration. Let us examine the items, one by one, to try to find out.

The most important item of all—the increase in the assessment rate—was allowed to pass through the Legislative Council without a murmur. By a simple resolution the cost of every person's rent in this Colony was increased from its already high level to something higher—the burden of balancing the family exchequer was made the harder for every resident, native and foreign. And yet there was a total absence of protest, of alternative suggestions, even of comment. On the same day, and by an equally simple method, the taxation on tobacco and spirituous liquor was also increased. We don't think there was much room for criticism or protest on that, but the fact remains that whatever little might have been said wasn't said. Not a syllable. And then, a little while after, comes along the Stamp Bill—a Bill that raised a storm of protest outside. But what happens in Council? One of the Unofficials gets hopelessly confused about stamps and Free Trade and then has to leave on holiday, and among the others there is some attempt made to see that all the recommendations and suggestions sent in to the Government are adopted. They didn't succeed entirely and we don't think they deserved to succeed. The past month has been rich in opportunities for presenting the public's case that the cost of living in this Colony is reaching a figure when Government economy should come to our assistance—opportunities that have been squandered by reason of the failure to present anything in the shape of alternatives to Government suggestions or a well-reasoned criticism of Governmental policies. The speech delivered by His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government was not in answer to the Unofficial Members, it was in answer to what had been said by others and to what had been written in the editorial columns of Hongkong's newspapers. And, presuming that speech did not find favour with the Unofficials, there was never an answer vouchsafed.

We have heard a lot about the cry for an unofficial "majority." We still question, as we have done in the past, whether that gift would not bring us to a state worse than that in which we are now. It is possibly within the memory of most of our readers that a few years ago the then Governor (Sir Henry May) made reference to the "big intellects of the past" and that one of our Unofficial Members protested against what he considered to be a slight on the modern generation of "unofficials." We cannot but think, after reviewing the course of events of the past month, that Sir Henry May voiced a lament shared by others besides himself. Our unofficials must do something if they wish to retain the confidence one usually reposes in men privileged to the prefix "Hon."

NOTES & COMMENTS.

The New Speaker.

As expected, the Right Hon. J. H. Whitley, who had been Chairman of the the Committee of Ways and Means and Deputy Speaker for ten years, has succeeded to Mr. Lowther's shoes. The new First Commoner has represented Halifax as a Liberal since 1900. Usually the Speaker is selected from the party in office. As the Ministry happens to be a coalition, the appointment would, one assumes, have gone to the larger wing, the Unionists, instead of to a "Coalition" if a candidate of equal suitability had been put forward. Mr. Whitley, however, was on good terms with the Unionists before the war brought him into formal alliance with them. It would be an error to infer from this that the new Speaker is wanting in democratic sympathies. He is an earnest and practical advocate of orderly progress, as his work in connection with the Industrial Council named after him attests. There is the further circumstance that it appears to have become the practice, as in Mr. Lowther's case, to give first offer of the Speakership to the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means, for which there is a practical justification. The office of Deputy Speaker is, we believe, unknown to the Constitution, but the custom has grown up of the Chairman of the Committee referred to (a permanent body) officiating as Deputy Speaker.

The N.Y.K. Combine.

A little while ago it was understood that the amalgamation of the chief Japanese shipping companies—the "big four"—under the wings of the N.Y.K. had been almost settled. Again the project hung fire. Resides the N.Y.K. the Osaka Shosen Kaisha was averse to the scheme, in spite of the blandishments of the Minister of Communications. The Directors will probably hold a special meeting in connection with the latest attempt to resuscitate the proposal, as the N.Y.K. Board did a few days ago. A statement of the decisions arrived at by the N.Y.K. Board will be issued in a few days, and meanwhile the Board has distributed among its shareholders a circular pointing out that a consequence of the amalgamation would be practically a monopoly of Japan's shipping by a single company, thus preventing progress, as the stimulus of competition would be lacking. If, as the circular implies, this objection is raised because such a state of things would be "very inadvisable for the interests of the State," the attitude shows patriotism, otherwise it is singular to hear a company protesting against a monopoly being conferred upon it. Another objection mentioned in the circular is that the advance in freight rates and the increase in profits through the accomplishment of the combine would prove mere dreams, for the trade in Japan must be governed by the world's quotation owing to the existence of competition among foreign lines, besides which, as the position of each company has its own peculiarities, it is impossible to reconcile their conflicting interest in a common agreement. For these reasons the Board considers the amalgamation impracticable. One would suppose that certain economies might be expected from combined working, but if the proposed partners are really against the scheme it is hardly for other countries to urge it, as a combine, if it did not raise rates, would not be likely to lower them. There is, however, considerable activity in favour of the fusion, so it may yet come about.

A Singular Foible.

A Japanese politician has received a provisional sentence of imprisonment for publishing obituary notices of hale and hearty opponents. This species of activity is calculated to make editors apprehensive. Several instances of "greatly exaggerated" reports, as Mark Twain described the erroneous announcement of his decease, have occurred within recent times. Only the other day there was the case of Dr. Bertrand Russell, whose condition, it is gratifying to learn, is improving. A few weeks previously Prince Kropotkin was prematurely stated to have passed away, though, like his fellow-countryman and fellow-author, Tolstoy, he survived the report only by a few days. These, apparently, were bond fide mistakes. The type of mentality that would fabricate an obituary notice is not easy to fathom.

DAY BY DAY.

ALL THE MADMEN ARE NOT IN BEDLAM. French Proverb.

By request of the Bolivian Government, the Consul General for Peru in this Colony, Mr. O. Diez Canseco, has taken over the interests of that Republic in Hongkong. All documents will be duly signed when produced at the Peruvian Consulate General, Alexandra Buildings, 4th floor.

The second annual Children's Festival will be held at St. Andrew's Church to-morrow (Sunday) at 11 a.m. and 6 p.m. The offertories will be given to Dr. Barnardos' Homes. The young people are requested to assemble in the Church Hall 15 minutes before each service.

The Government Gazette states: His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government has been pleased to appoint, provisionally and subject to His Majesty's pleasure, Mr. Chau Siu-ki to be an Unofficial Member of the Legislative Council during the absence on leave of the Honourable Mr. Ho Fook.

It is officially notified that passengers will not be allowed to disembark at any port in India unless they have secured the circa of the French authorities at the port of embarkation. They are also required, immediately on landing and again immediately before departure, to present their passports at the offices of the Service de la Surete for endorsement.

A movement is afoot to incorporate the different workmen's guilds of the Colony into a Labour Union, plans for the same having been submitted to the different organizations concerned. The Chinese Engineers' Guild, which has probably the most numerous membership amongst the guilds, has been approached on the question, but has not yet given its consent to the arrangement.

A successful Whist Drive was held at the Catholic Men's Club on Thursday evening. The following were the prize-winners: Ladies:—1. Mrs. Bacon (173); 2. Mrs. Alderman (167); 3. Mrs. Tuttle (165); Booby Prize: Mrs. May (146). Gents:—1. Mr. Pugh (180); 2. Mr. Moxworthy (179); 3. Mr. Kay (175); 4. Mr. Lodge (175); Booby Prize: Mr. Dove (133). Mr. R.W. Brown performed the duties of M.C., and the prizes very presented by Mr. F. Fisher.

It was thought at one time that General Wood, who is on a mission to the Philippines to investigate into the independence question, would be enabled to visit Hongkong on his way to Manila aboard the Wenatchee. The latest advice received here are to the effect that the General transferred to another steamer at Kobe and took a direct connection for Manila, leaving Shanghai and Hongkong out of the run. The Wenatchee is due to arrive here on Sunday with a big passenger list including many prominent American businessmen.

At the New Theatre to-night the "Merry Wizard Company" is opening a short season, the entertainment they provide being composed of an excellently varied programme of ventriloquism, sleight-of-hand, mental telepathy, singing, etc. After a tour of the United States and a stay of ten weeks in Manila (four weeks of which they were featured at the Savoy) this talented little Company has arrived in Hongkong and has succeeded in getting an opening date at the New Victoria Theatre. Intending patrons should note that the performance begins at nine o'clock.

An afternoon concert, arranged by Madame Lottie Gordon, takes place at the City Hall on Thursday, 12th May 5.30. It is Madame Gordon's intention to present a most brilliant and artistic programme and it is hoped the wonderful success of her recent charity concert will be repeated. The artists announced to appear on this occasion are Madame Lottie Gordon (operatic soprano), Mr. E. G. d'Aquino (tenor), Miss Ampara Rosello (dramatic soprano), Mrs. F. Cameron (contralto), Miss Edith Soares (light soprano), Miss Nellie Williams (mezzo) and the Misses V. R. and R. Young (violin, cello and piano). Tickets may be had at Moutrie's and Anderson's and booking will open on Saturday, May 7.

HONGKONG TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

THE DOLLAR.

May 1st.—The rate of the Dollar, on demand, to-day is 2s. 2 3/8.

THE PLAGUE SCARE.

May 1st.—The Plague is apparently making progress amongst us, the number of cases having risen to twenty in the course of the twenty-four hours ending at noon yesterday, and to nine in the period ending at noon to-day.

ALARMING REPORTS FROM KOWLOON.

May 4th.—Alarming reports were brought from Kowloon to the Police this morning of three soldiers having shot a boy and being detained by the Chinese authorities. Inquiry showed that three privates of the Asiatic Artillery had had an altercation with some of the villagers, during which a small boy had been kicked and injured, this being the cause of the detention. Acting Captain Superintendent of Police Lethbridge and Detective Quincey this afternoon went over to investigate fully and procured the release of the prisoners.

MISCHIEVOUS HUNS.

May 4th.—Yesterday afternoon the Captain and Doctor of the German mail steamer Hohenzollern were observed taking photographs of Stonecutters Island on shore, and were arrested and handed over to the Police authorities. The Doctor had in his possession a hand detective camera, which was this morning given to the military authorities to be examined. On being arrested the Captain appeared to be very indignant, and in spite of having been granted every facility by the Police to have his gig taken back to the ship, etc., refused for some time to be searched, and seemed to think he was a privileged person. Upon being brought before Commander Hastings at the Police Court this morning, the case was remanded until to-morrow to admit of the photographs being developed.

HONGKONG POLO CLUB.

May 5th.—The annual dinner of members of this club took place at the Hongkong Club on Tuesday evening. Mr. T. H. Whitehead, the senior member of the Polo Club, was in the chair, and Captain P. de S. Burney, R.A., was vice-chairman.

JAPANESE CONSULATE CHANGES.

Mr. Suzuki Due for Sydney.

Advices have been received here of the forthcoming transference of Mr. Teiji Tsubokami, Second Secretary of the Japanese Embassy in London, to the Consul Generalship of Hongkong.

The present holder of the local post, Mr. E. Suzuki, is due for transference to Sydney, where he will be Consul General at that port.

Mr. Suzuki, who has been Consul General in Hongkong for three and a half years, hopes to leave for his new post in June, before the arrival of his successor. As a member of the Consular body, he holds the high esteem of his colleagues and the Government, and his departure will be greatly regretted, while his promotion will give pleasure to his well-wishers. Educated in the Higher Commercial School at Tokio, Mr. Suzuki has had a wide experience of commercial work in the course of many years of office, and his transference to Sydney, coming as it does at a period marked with great possibilities of increased commercial relations between Japan and the Southern Continent, gives the indication that in their choice of the new Consul General of Sydney, the Japanese Government is fully cognizant of the qualifications which Mr. Suzuki possesses as a holder of the important post.

The departure of Mr. Suzuki had been impending for many months. Indeed, if it had not been for the visit of the Japanese Crown Prince to Hongkong, which necessitated his presence here, Mr. Suzuki would not have returned to the Colony when he went on leave in September last.

ALLEGED THEFT.

Serious Charge Against Constable.

Before Mr R. E. Lindsell at the Magistracy yesterday afternoon Sowah Shab, a police constable stationed in Kowloon City, was charged with the theft of $21 in notes from an Indian confrete Nathy Khan, of the same station.

Mr F. C. Jenkin appeared for defence.

Outlining the facts, Sergeant McNab Wilson, officer in charge of Kowloon City, said that at 8 p.m. on the 18th, complainant went out on duty and forgot to carry the key of his box which he left in the lock. When he returned to his room at midnight he discovered that $21 was missing from his box. Witness received the report at 8 a.m. next morning and mustered all the Indian constables in their quarters, taxing them with the theft collectively. Receiving no information, a search was made of the effects of all the Indian constables for the missing money, but without result. On the morning of the 20th defendant applied for twenty-four hours leave and a written permit to leave the station. The application was granted. The Hongkong ferry launch left at 9.30 a.m. that morning, and half an hour later witness observed defendant loitering near the Station. He took no notice of him, being under the impression that he was waiting for the arrival of the second launch, which was leaving at 11 a.m. Later, defendant was seen entering the "fort," apparently to feed his goat. Defendant did not come out of the fort and witness ordered another constable to look for defendant. The search in the fort was fruitless. Enquiries disclosed that defendant had engaged a ricksha to proceed to Hunghom after escaping from the fort by scaling a wall. A message was sent to the Hunghom Police Station to intercept defendant, and a few minutes after defendant had been stopped near the Hughes and Hough coal depot. Sergeant McNab Wilson arrived. A leather purse, containing $21 in notes, which had been identified by Nathy Khan, was found under the cushion of the ricksha.

Sergt. McNab Wilson's statement was borne out by complainant who, when examined by Mr Jenkin, denied he had a quarrel with defendant on the 16th. It was defendant's turn to perform night duty on the 16th, but for some reason, his name was erased on the duty book, and witness's name was written on it. He had no quarrel with defendant over the matter.

An Indian constable, however, said he heard a quarrel between defendant and complainant over

CANTON NEWS.

The Inauguration Ceremony.

It is now stated that the inauguration ceremony, to take place on Thursday next, will be comprised in the following programme:—

Sun Yat-sen will arrive at the Parliament House at 10 a.m. and will be received by the Members of Parliament in full uniform. After bowing before the National Flag and taking the Oath, Sun Yat-sen will be offered the seal and diploma by the Speaker. At 11 o'clock Dr. Sun will receive guests at the office of the Military Department and at noon will meet the day procession. He will meet the evening procession at the office of the Municipal Department at 7 p.m. The gold seal has been very artistically finished. Its weight is 67 taels (nearly 12lbs) and it is composed of gold 75%, silver 13% and copper 12%. Its cost has been $6,000.

A special envoy and a gunboat has been sent for the third time to the village of Tongka to persuade Tang Shao-ye to return to Canton, but he still refuses to come down. It is said that he is preparing to go to Shanghai.

It is reported that fighting has already commenced on the north-west and south-west fronts and that war will formally be declared immediately after the inauguration ceremony on Canton.

EIGHT AND EIGHT SQUADRON.

Rapid Progress of Japan's Programme.

The construction of the warships forming part of the eight and eight unit fleet is making extraordinarily speedy progress, reports the Kokumin, owing to the general business depression, which enables every shipbuilding yard to devote its entire capacity to the construction of the warships.

The battleship Kaga, which is being built at the Kawasaki Dockyard, and the battleship Tosa, which is under construction at the Mitsubishi Dockyard, will be complete and launched early in November this year. Among other warships expected to be launched within the current year are five gunboats.

the erasure of the former's name on the duty book. The case was adjourned until Monday afternoon.

Between Ourselves

By Robt. MacWhirter.

I met Mr. Wilkerson McFumble on Battery Path on his way up to the P.W.D. No, he didn't mind in the least giving his views on the housing question. The present congestion and overcrowding in the Colony, he said, was a disgrace to any civilised outpost of the Empire. What he would like to see was six-roomed houses for all with bathrooms attached, and extra wash hand-basins on the verandahs. I would explain that Mr. McFumble before he joined the P.W.D. was a partner of the well-known firm of McFumble and Fozzle, architects and plumbing experts. McFumble is a firm advocate of the Government's policy of rearing residential houses at a cost of seven years on the non-repair system. He does not believe in building houses at cheap cost in order that the next generation of architects may reap the benefit. Nor is he in favour of any relaxation of the Building Ordinance and is of the opinion that one of these days the builders of some of those brick-thick top storeys will wish they had put their money in a hen farm instead. Thicker houses and the architect's commission worked out on the gross weight of the building were two very necessary measures which he thought the Government should support with the greatest enthusiasm.

Mr. McFumble came to the Colony with four 4H pencils and a roll of second-hand tracing paper and a good record behind him. He says he owes his present success to the ability of the Chinese Contractor and to the principle of working out strains to bear double the pressure and again multiplying by 2 just to make sure. "Time and material," says Mr. McFumble, "are the two most necessary adjuncts to Government work. Given the time, the material will speak for itself—the bills—which will naturally become a recurring charge on the ratepayers."

Mr. McFumble has done very well in the building line himself. A few years ago he bought land and built himself a house, but unfortunately, the district becoming antiseptic by Chinese, he reluctantly had to sell at a large profit.

With regard to politics Mr. McFumble said that although he was a member of the C.R.A. he bears that Association no ill-will but naturally has felt attracted to the K.R.A. ever since he heard they intended raising money to build a Town Hall in Kowloon. The plans for the new Kowloon Hospital, he said, were now ready but of course, they had yet to be varnished and annealed. Several years must elapse before they were ready to be placed in the hands of the contractor.

LANSING STATEMENT CRITICISED.

Former U.S. Secretary Of State Is Roughly Handled For Views On Peace Conference.

If the publication just issued in the United States by Mr. Lansing, former Secretary of State, is as it is reported to be in its statements regarding Japan, and the actions of the Japanese at the Peace Conference, "it is altogether too crude and uncultured to deserve any formal reply from the Japanese Foreign Office," is the opinion of one of the foreign attaches in Tokyo, quoted in a statement sent out by Kokusai, while it is confidently asserted in well-informed circles that the Japanese Foreign Office will attempt no reply and will make no comment on the Lansing statements.

In official circles the allegations made by Mr. Lansing are described as "wildly fantastic, but very stupid."

AIMING AT WILSON.

"The assault appears to have been made upon the former President of the United States—Dr. Woodrow Wilson—by his former Secretary of State and friend, over the shoulders of the Ambassadors from Japan.

"If it be as reported, it is altogether rude, brutal, and most certainly not deserving the dignity of an official reply.

"The charge of 'blackmail,' said to have been brought by the dismissed Secretary against Prince Saionji, Count Chinda and Viscount Makino, cannot damage their reputations, shake the confidence of, nor alter the high esteem in which they were held by their associates in the Great Council of Ten at Paris.

"The thinking public in Europe, America, Japan or China, will not be thus bludgeoned into insensibility to reason, logic, and straight thinking, by an outburst, which can only reflect discredit upon the author."

LANSING'S WORD ACCEPTED.

The declaration of Viscount Makino, in connection with the statement of ex-Secretary Lansing concerning the Shantung question, made in his now famous publication, "Peace Negotiation," has produced no echo in America. Viscount Makino has declared that Japan never resorted to blackmailing in connection with the Shantung problem, but the fact that his statement is entirely ignored in America, indicates that Mr. Lansing's statement is accepted at least so far as the Shantung question is concerned.

It is expected that Mr. Lansing will make some further explanation to refute the declaration of Viscount Makino. Probably Mr. Lansing will go into details regarding the interviews between him and Viscount Makino and Count Chinda which he says took place on April 21 and 1919.

FLOATING MINES. English steamer exc. he permitted this sum. trips off the South and East will be subject to certain relation owing to the danger floating mines. An official of the Board of Trade stated that in the North Sea and in the English Channel east of Seley Bill excursions will be run during daylight only. Visibility must not be less than two miles, and anchorage in foggy weather, or in the rain of the stream, is forbidden. Vessels will not be allowed to run more than five miles from the coast. Certificates will be issued by the Board only on condition that passengers are notified that there is an element of risk owing to the possibility of collision with floating mines. Instructions have been given that in all waters an "extra good look-out" must be kept for mines.

HUMBER PORTS REGAINING LOST TRADE.

Makers of farm machinery on the south bank of the Humber have had a long spell of bad trade owing to their old customer, Russia, being cut off. They now hope to supply Soviet Russia with engines and implements used in flax production, sending their through the free ports of Hango, in Finland, and Libau, in Latvia. If they can do this, flax from Russia can be imported here, and industry in Yorkshire and Lancashire would be greatly improved. But recent news hardly encourages the hope that Soviet Russia will be settling down quietly to the cultivation of flax, or anything else, for the present. Humber ports, however, are gradually recovering the Swedish and Norwegian coal markets. These countries during the British coal strike imported coal from other countries. But the quality proved to be inferior to Yorkshire and Derbyshire coal, and now that prices and freights are down again, Scandinavian importers are once more buying in the old market.

CURIOUS SALVAGE QUESTION.

The judgment of Mr. Justice Hill in the Admiralty Court in the case of the salvage of the s.s. Nyanza revealed an anomalous position as regards the disposal of the salvage money. After long legal arguments, £6,000 was awarded for the salvage operations. It was pointed out that the owners of the tug which received a large portion of the award were a railway company under Government control, and as the salvaged vessel was chartered by the Government, the money simply went from one Government department to another. Counsel for the plaintiffs (the railway company) stated that the case was being fought on behalf of the men, who were not satisfied with the compensation offered them by the Government, and had asked the owners to take the matter up. The owners had no interest in the award at all. His Lordship agreed that the money was only passing from one Government pocket to another, but he understood that there was an agreed scale for rewarding the master and crew.

SECOND OFFICER'S CLAIM.

At the Shanghai Mixed Court on the 12th inst., P. F. Thompson sued the Wei Yuen S.S. Co. for dismissal without notice. Mr. Moller of Messrs. Moller & Co., who are the local agents of the Steamship Company, appeared on their behalf with Mr. S. H. McKenna as counsel and Mr. K. Newman appeared for the plaintiff. Mr. Thompson, who was second officer on one of the Company's ships, said that he saw a Russian in the ship who, said he had been appointed second officer. Mr. Thompson had not received notice. Mr. Moller stated that plaintiff's agreement had expired, but he had continued to work for the Company as before. By this agreement, the plaintiff could be dismissed with two weeks' notice. Because plaintiff had complained that he had not been fairly treated, Mr. Moller stated that he offered him a billet on the Nancy Moller, which was sailing the next day. Mr. Thompson agreed to this but did not turn up. Asked by Mr. Newman of his explanation of the affair, Mr. Moller said that plaintiff was got at by him (Mr. Newman) and the China Coast Officers' Guild. Judgment was reserved.
